

HOLDING HANDS WITH JESUS: Poetry, prose, prayers, reflections spontaneously written from faith

Mary M. Theriault and her husband Stanley live in Sterling, Virginia. For someone who has gone through some deep troughs and high peaks, she can testify to the goodness and warmth of how it is to be truly HOLDING HANDS WITH JESUS. In this anthology of poetry, prose, prayers, and reflections, spontaneously written with love and faith, author Mary M. Theriault shares to readers the fullness of joy, solace, and serenity if they only surrender their all to Christ. This little book was written in hopes that in some small way it may reach a lonely or lost soul, console a saddened individual, keep a smile on a happy individual, or mostly bring back a searching soul to the Lord. She puts her thoughts and sentiments into beautiful expressions, praises, lamentations, and prayers. From honoring God's immense love to Jesus' tight embrace while the author cried her heart out, from holding hands with Jesus to gazing upon His cross, from breathing in the Holy Spirit to loving like the Blessed Mother Mary, and more, these stirring verses and lines are sure to touch every reader's heart and soul. There are also Authors Notes that may help explain why she writes the way she does whenever she feels a different array of emotions. She says, Just remember as you read, Jesus is ready to hold your hand too..
