Not illustrated. 1886 edition. Excerpt: ... CHAPTER XX. DITCHES ON STATE LANDS. G. S. 2724. Sale of Arid Lands conditioned on the Construction of Ditches, etc.] For the purpose of encouraging cultivation and the making of irrigation ditches, the State Board of Land Commissioners are hereby authorized to sell at public sale, at not less than the appraised value, [not more] than one-half of any tract of arid land belonging to the State, except the school land, in alternate quarter sections as nearly as may be, to any responsible person or corporation, on condition that said person or corporation dig an irrigation ditch in such location, and of sufficient capacity to furnish water for the entire tract. All contracts for the sale of State lands under the provisions of this section shall be drawn by the Attorney General, and signed by the Governor and the Secretary of the Board, in behalf of the State, and by the other parties in interest; and in no case shall the titles to any of said lands pass from the State until such ditch is completed in a manner satisfactory to the State Board, and the purchasers have given, in addition to such price as may be fixed by the State Board, a suitable contract or agreement, secured by a sufficient bond, that they will furnish water for the remaining portion of the tract of land, as aforesaid, at not to succeed [exceed] such rates as the State Board may agree. Upon the fulfillment of the above conditions patent may issue for not more than one-half of said tract, and the remaining portion of said tract may be subsequently disposed of in the same manner as other State lands. [Sec. 8, p. 226, Acts 1881. G. 3. 2744. Sale of Lands conditioned on the Construction of Ditches, etc.] The State Board of Land
