

My Parents Went Through the Holocaust and All I Got was This Lousy T-shirt (Traumedy Central, traumedycentral.com)

As a Holocaust survivor, I am saddened (aware) that the effects of our experiences during the Holocaust often created less than perfect parents. However, Hanala managed to survive her own growing up with humor and compassion, not only for her parents, but for her own circumstances. Her gift for storytelling draws you into her world and grips you there for a wild ride. -Renee Firestone, Auschwitz Survivor featured in Steven Spielberg's Oscar Winning documentary. Tortured by a past filled with Nazis and the parents who fled them, Hanala escaped from Montreal, headed for Hollywood and changed her name to something not Jewish. She became Suzan Stadner, the creator and star of Shape Up LA! But not right away. When she first arrived, instead of getting into acting, she got into drugs, alcohol and limos with strange men. After several overdoses, she became sober and an aerobics instructor. This hilarious, profound, heart-rending autobiography is a Traumedy (Trauma+Time=Comedy). A little bit Auschwitz, a little bit Brady Bunch... Roots- with a smaller family.
