

Baptism: Weve Got It Right and Wrong: What Baptists Must Keep, What We Must Change, and Why

Baptism Weve Got It Right...and Wrong considers why Baptists must rethink baptism in this post-denominational age. Tyler reviews what the Bible says about baptism and provides a solid survey. Learn how and why the practice of baptism changed in church history, including the return of believers baptism at the dawn of Baptist history. Explore the question facing many families and Baptist churches today as Christians from other denominations enter Baptist church doors: Should the rebaptism of Christians from other denominations be a requirement for Baptist church membership? Baptism Weve Got It Right...and Wrong is a decidedly honest look at this biblical and sacramental practice of todays believing church. The complications arising from different baptismal practices can create confusion for todays churches. Tyler argues for a renewed focus and understanding of Baptism. Bring renewed vitality to your churchs observance of baptism using Tylers insights. Great for Group or Individual Study Each chapter includes a guide for discussion and questions for individual reflection or group discussion. Also, the appendix connects the chapters for ministerial application. Baptism Weve Got It Right...and Wrong is a wonderful resource for those new to the Baptist faith and for lifetime Baptists.
